

Life

Just like a wild animal in the jungle is our life,
It can be smooth or on the edge of knife.

There can be signs for your bad future,
Or your struggle can become your pleasure.

You never know who wins or loses
in the race,
It's just a rule that, don't slow down your pace.

Just as we pass by watching hoardings
on the road,
We have to solve life's passing-by code.

Every moment of your life is something unique,
So remember them and put a tick

Life is the kingdom and its king is our decision,
So, you should always have a long-term vision
